

Seventh Annual Vigil Against Violence

Nationally Renowned Leader & Speaker
The Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III
Sr. Pastor, Trinity United Church of Christ, Chicago

The Violence of Wealth Theft: Why Reparations Lead to Flourishing

Featuring Voices from around Chicago:

Erica Nanton
Community Organizer,
Faith Community of St. Sabina

Marvin Slaughter, Jr.
Reparations
Researcher

Rev. Dr. Beth Brown
Pastor, Lincoln Park
Presbyterian Church

LaCreshia Birts
Co-Founder of the Black
Remembrance Project

Kevin Brown
Co-Founder, Evanston
Rejects Racist Reparations

We will remember youth killed by gun violence, engage in deeper awareness of how wealth theft throughout history has led to violence in our communities, commit to learning about how reparations can lead to flourishing, and experience what it's like when we all come together to envision healing through federal reparations.

Sunday, October 16 • 4:00-6:00 pm

Lincoln Park Presbyterian Church

600 W. Fullerton Parkway, Chicago

Park for $6 at Lurie Children's Hospital Outpatient Clinic, 2515 N. Clark St., chaser ticket needed at exit

This event is free and open to the public but registration is required due to space constraints. Use the QR code to register. Masks required.

This event will also be live-streamed on our YouTube channel. Please see our website for details: lppchurch.org